And yours.

Sir,

I am informed that you have written to Mr. Dunbar, and cannot trouble him with more letters than yours. I will address a particular answer if you think it necessary.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Dear Sir,

1 July 1860

George Street, London

I have just received your letter of 17th July, and am pleased to find that you are now in London, and that you have been able to see the play. I am sure you will enjoy the performance, and I hope that you will be able to stay long enough to see the other parts of your visit.

I am looking forward to your visit, and I hope that you will have a pleasant journey.

Yours sincerely,
