Preface
Authors: Tamlin S. Conner (University of Otago, New Zealand) and Matthias R. Mehl (University of Arizona, USA)

Foreword
Author: Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi (Claremont Graduate School, USA)

Part I: Theoretical Background

1. Why Researchers Should Think “Real-World”: A Conceptual Rationale
Author: Harry T. Reis (University of Rochester, USA)

2. Why Researchers Should Think “Real-Time”: A Cognitive Rationale
Author: Norbert Schwarz (University of Michigan, USA)

3. Why Researchers Should Think “Within-Person”: A Paradigmatic Rationale
Author: Ellen Hamaker (Utrecht University, The Netherlands)

Authors: Peter Wilhelm, Meinrad Perrez (University of Fribourg, Switzerland) and Kurt Pawlik (University of Hamburg, Germany)
Part II: Study Design Considerations and Methods of Data Collection

5. Getting Started: Launching a Study in Daily Life
   Authors: Tamlin S. Conner (University of Otago, New Zealand) and Barbara J. Lehman (Western Washington University, USA)

6. Measurement Reactivity in Diary Research
   Authors: William Barta (University of Connecticut, USA), Howard Tennen (University of Connecticut Health Center, USA), Mark D. Litt (University of Connecticut Health Center, USA) and Stephen Armeli (Farleigh Dickenson University, USA)

7. Computerized Sampling of Experiences and Behavior
   Authors: Thomas Kubiak and Katharina Krog (University of Greifswald, Germany)

8. Daily Diary Methods
   Author: Kathleen Gunthert (American University, USA) and Susan J. Wenze (Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University and Butler Hospital, USA)

9. Event-Contingent Sampling
   Authors: Debbie S. Moskowitz and Gentiana Sadikaj (McGill University, Canada)

10. Naturalistic Observation Sampling: The Electronically Activated Recorder
    Authors: Matthias R. Mehl and Megan Robbins (University of Arizona, USA)

11. Ambulatory Psychoneuroendocrinology: Assessing Salivary Cortisol and Other Hormones in Daily Life
    Authors: Wolff Schlotz (University of Southampton, United Kingdom)

12. Bridging the Gap Between the Laboratory and the Real World: Integrative Ambulatory Psychophysiology
    Authors: Frank Wilhelm, Paul Grossman & Maren Mueller (University of Basel, Switzerland)

13. Ambulatory Assessment of Movement Behavior: Methodology, Measurement and Application
    Authors: Johannes B. J. Bussmann (Erasmus University Medical Center, NL) and Ulrich Ebner-Priemer (University of Karlsruhe, Germany)

    Author: Matthew S. Goodwin (Massachusetts Institute of Technology, USA)

15. Emerging Technology for Studying Daily Life
    Author: Stephen Intille (Massachusetts Institute of Technology, USA)
Part III: Data Analytic Methods

16. Power Analysis For Intensive Longitudinal Studies
   Authors: Niall Bolger (Columbia University, USA), Gertraud Stadler (Columbia University, USA), and Jean-Philippe Laurenceau (University of Delaware, USA)

17. Psychometrics
   Author: Patrick E. Shrout and Sean P. Lane (New York University, USA)

18. A Guide for Data Cleaning in Experience Sampling Studies
   Author: Kira O. McCabe, Lori Mack and William Fleeson (Wake Forest University, USA)

19. Techniques for Analyzing Intensive Longitudinal Data With Missing Values
   Authors: Anne C. Black (Yale University School of Medicine, USA), Ofer Harel (University of Connecticut) and Gregory Matthews (University of Connecticut)

20. Multi-Level Modeling Analysis of Diary-Style Data
    Author: John B. Nezlek (College of Williams & Mary, USA)

21. Structural Equation Modeling of Ambulatory Assessment Data
    Authors: Michael Eid (Freie Universität Berlin, Germany), Delphine Courvoisier (University Hospital, Geneva, Switzerland) and Tanja Lischetzke (Freie Universität Berlin, Germany)

22. Analyzing Intensive Longitudinal Data from Dyads
    Authors: Jean-Philippe Laurenceau (University of Delaware, USA) and Niall Bolger (Columbia University, USA)

23. Investigating Temporal Instability in Psychological Variables: Understanding the Real Word as Time-Dependent
    Authors: Ulrich Ebner-Priemer (University of Karlsruhe, Germany) and Timothy J. Trull (University of Missouri, USA)

24. Modeling Non-Linear Dynamics in Intraindividual Variability
    Author: Pascal Deboeck (University of Kansas, USA)

25. Within-Person Factor Analysis: Modeling how the Individual Fluctuates and Changes Across Time
    Author: Annette Brose (Max Planck Institute for Human Cognitive and Brain Sciences, Leipzig, Germany) and Nilam Ram (Pennsylvania State University, USA)

26. Multi-level Mediational Analysis in the Study of Daily Lives
    Author: Noel A. Card (University of Arizona, USA)
Part IV: Research Applications: Perspectives from the Different Fields

27. Emotion Research
   Authors: Adam A. Augustine and Randy J. Larsen (Washington University St. Louis, USA)

28. Relationship Research
   Authors: Shelly Gable, Courtney L. Gosnell and Thery Prok (University of California, Santa Barbara, USA)

29. Personality Research
   Authors: William Fleeson (Wake Forest University, USA) and Erik Nofle (Willamette University, USA)

30. Cross-Cultural Research
   Authors: William Tov and Christie Napa Scollon (Singapore Management University, Singapore)

31. Positive Psychology
   Authors: Jaime L. Kurtz (Pomona College) and Sonja Lyubomirsky (University of California, Riverside, USA)

32. Health Psychology
   Author: Joshua M. Smyth and Kristin E. Heron (Syracuse University, USA)

33. Developmental Psychology
   Author: Joel M. Hektner (North Dakota State University, USA)

34. Industrial/Organizational Psychology
   Author: Daniel J. Beal (Rice University, USA)

35. Clinical Psychology
   Author: Timothy J. Trull (University of Missouri, USA), Ulrich W. Ebner-Priemer (University of Karlsruhe, Germany), Whitney C. Brown, Rachel L. Tomko, and Emily M. Scheiderer (University of Missouri, USA)

36. Psychiatry
   Author: Inez Myin-Germeys (Maastricht University, The Netherlands)
