

The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences

	Policy:
	Promotion and Tenure Reviews
	Revision: 25 April 2001	Effective: 25 April 2001

Policy

The attached University Guidelines, Criteria, and Evaluation Procedures for Promotion and Tenure (passed by the Faculty Senate on April 28, 1997) serve as the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences guidelines governing the college-level review of existing or proposed unit-level criteria and procedures for the promotion and tenure process. In conjunction with unit-level criteria and procedures policies, the University Guidelines, Criteria, and Evaluation Procedures for Promotion and Tenure will govern college-level conduct of the promotion and tenure process and consideration of candidates for promotion and tenure.

Knowledge

The 1992 Faculty of Social and Behavioral Sciences Personnel Policies for Faculty and Academic Professionals is rescinded as of April 25, 2001.